

Reprinted from Daily Lift, August 11, 2011
Republished with permission of the Christian Science Publishing
Society. All rights reserved.

Waves of divine Love

By Elise L. Moore, C.S.B.

We were walking at the beach and our feet were making little footprints in the wet sand, but as soon as a wave washed over them the footprints disappeared. I've been thinking of God's love as like the gentle waves of the ocean removing fear, pain, whatever problem. There is an entire ocean of divine Love. The waves of God's love reach you and wash away the footprints of pain or problem. One moment the problem seems so real and the next it is gone, washed away by the action of God's divine Love. Divine Love's care for you is constant and continuous. It is new every moment, rearranging thought and making the body healthy. Today, let's take a walk on the Golden Shore of Love and the Peaceful Sea of Harmony, and feel God's infinite love that comforts and heals. Life's problems will disappear with the next wave of divine Love.